TIENEY L. DAWES ELECTED IN MASSA-

CHUSETTS. A REGULAR PARTY CANDIDATE SUCCESSFUL ON THE SECOND BALLOT-FIVE VOTES MORE THAN WAS NECESSARY TO AN ELECTION-A NARROW ES-CAPE ADMITTED BY THE DAWES MEN-THEY CLAIM TO OWE THE ELECTION TO JUDGE HOAR'S

FROM THE SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT OF THE TRIBUNE. BOSTON, Jan. 20 .- Henry L. Dawes was chosen Senator on the second ballot to-day, receiving five more votes than were necessary to an election, and just one-half the full Legislature. There were consultations among the friends of the respective candidates before the Joint Convention met. Speaker Sanford addressed the adherents of Mr. Dawes, advising them to stand firm. The supporters of Judge Hear reconsidered their action of last evening, determined upon a change of base, and decided to support Judge Devens. This proved to be too late. The first ballot stood: Dawes, 123; Abbott, 88; Devens, 29; Adams, 13; Hear, 11; Phillips, 2; Bullock, 1; Banks, 1. This disclosed a gain of 12 votes for Mr. Dawes over his bighest number yesterday, and left him only 12 short of an election. The Democrats then tried to adjourn, but were voted down by almost the combined Republican force. The second ballot proceeded amid breathless interest. Mr. Dawes gained the two Phillips votes, one from Adams, one from Dana, and six from Dovens and Hoar. This left him still two votes short of an election. Mr. Stearns of Boston then changed from Prof. Seelye to Mr. Dawes, leaving the latter only one vote short, which was immediately supplied by the change of Mr. Savery. The Democrats then began to change their votes from Abbott to Adams, hoping to make a division in this way. Before the vote could be announced, applications came thick and fast to the President. Amid these Mr. Churchill of Boston, a Devens, man got his recognition and changed to Mr. Dawes. This settled the question by demonstrating that the anti-Dawes Republican vote that remained could not be given to Mr. Adams. The Democrats went on changing till only ten of them were left with their party candidate, but it was of no avail. The appeal for Republican union on the highest candidate had succeeded. The vote as officially announced stood:

The Dawes men are exultant, but admit that they have had a narrow escape. They concede that their candidate was not a choice of the majority of the Legislature, and say they owe his election to the weakness of Judge Hoar. They have feared the nomination of Judge Devens more than anything else, as several of their men were inclined to vote for him. Could Judge Hoar's supporters have joined tegether at the outset there is a widespread impression that the Legislature could have elected him, and that the Democratic vote would have been east in his favor as against Mr. Dawes. There has been little personal enthusiasm for Mr. Dawes from the beginning. His strength has been that he was more strictly the regular partisan candidate, and it was felt necessary to unite upon him to preserve

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTS WM. A. WALLACE THE DEMOCRATIC SUCCESSOR TO SENATOR SCOTT RLECTED BY A MAJORITY OF NINE-THE SOLID VOTE OF HIS PARTY CAST FOR HIM.

[FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT OF THE TRIBUNE.] HARRISBURG, Jan. 20 .- In the Joint Convention of the two Houses of the Pennsylvania Legislature, held at noon to-day, the Hon. Wm. A. Wallace was elected United States Senator, to serve for the term of six years from March 4. At the last he secured the solid vote of his party. Even the stubborn Sonator Rowland of Pike County, whom neither persuasion nor force could hitherto move, and who, in order to avoid the issue had obtained leave of absence, and vanished, when he saw the success of Senator Wallace was inevitable, put in an appearance at the eleventh hour, and, to the surprise of everybody, voted for his foe. The Hon. John Allison of Mercer County, Register of the United States Treasury, had the straight party vote of the Republicans. The following is a synopsis of the ballot: Senate-Altison, 29; Wallace, 19; Allison's majority,

House-Wallace, 106; Allison, 87; Wallace's majority,

Joint Convention-Wallace, 125; Allison, 116. Total amber of votes cast, 241. Wallace's majority, 9. In the House there was one Republican paired | the Revision of the with a Democrat, and in the Senate Mr. Alexander of Philadelphia paired with Senator Wallace, the Democratic oandidate.

Mr. Wallace's skill as a political manager was strikingly shown by the ease with which he brought to his support in the final contest the four bolters who refused to abide by the decision of the Democratic cancus. Their action threatened at first to result in his defeat, and was believed to open a probable road to the election of a Republican. But when the two houses voted separately yesterday, it wes found that these men had fallen back into the party ranks, and to-day in joint convention there was not the slightest disturbing element. The members who had allowed Mr. Buckalew to persuade them that the new Constitution a State Senator from election to the United States Senate, changed their opinions when shown that the defeat of Mr. Wallace by their votes would be their own political rain. As to the rank the new Senator will occupy at Washington there is but one opinion. Nobody claims that he will distinguish himself as a debater or a political leader. He will, however, make a vigilant and faithful representative of the interests of Pennsylvania, and his long experience in the State Senate will enable him to take hold at once of the practical work of legislation. Although disposed to Bourbonism in the canvass of 1879. Wallace is now fairly ranked with the progressive Democracy on questions of national politics. His political sagacity and talents for organizing campaigns will no doubt secure for him a position of some prominence in the councils of his | he refused to have anything to do with either of the inparty. Besides, he will probably furnish the Democrate in the Senate with the kind of reënforcement they have long been in need of-namely, a man who will closely watch the proceedings from day to day and make such points as will serve the party.

MR. WALLACE WILL NOT RESIGN AT PRESENT. HARRISBURG, Jan. 20 .- United States Senator-elect Wallace will probably not resign his seat in the State Senate until after the close of the present session. His personal preference is to retire, but if he should do so his district would be put to heavy expense in electing a successor, and many of his constituents would be dissatisfied. There is no valid legal objection to his remaining in the State Senate, inasmuch as his term as United States Senator does not begin until

THE RHODE ISLAND SENATORSHIP STILL UNSETTLED.

GEN. BURNSIDE GAINS THREE VOTES-HIS SUP-PORTERS REFUSE TO JOIN A REPUBLICAN CAUCUS -THE UNCERTAINTY OF THE MOREOW.

PROVIDENCE, Jan. 20 .- The balloting for United States Senator was resumed at moon to-day, when the 24th ballot was taken, as follows:

Whole number of votes.... | Necessary to a choice | A. E. Burnside | 46 Olney Arnold |
Nathan F. Dixon	30 Howland G. Hazard
A. C. Barstow	16 George H. Browne
W. P. Sheffield	7 S. S. Lapham

The 25th ballot was then ordered, and was a repetition of the 24th in every particular, not a member changing his previous vote. It was evident that continued balloting would be useless, and an adjournment for the day followed. On the rising of the Assembly, a Republican caucus was held, the Hon. C. C. Van Zandt presiding. As on yesterday, the Burnside men were absent, and on this account Mr. Spencer of Providence, one of the Temperance men voting for Mr. Barstow, moved that the caucus adjourn sine dis, which was carried. It is

PROSPECT OF A COMPROMISE CANDIDATE IN

NEBRASKA. OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 20 .- The balloting for United States Senator was resumed to-day. The first ballot stood: Thayer, 18; Dunphy, 14; Paddock, 8; Mason, 5; scattering, 5. On the second ballot Thayer had 17 votes; Dunphy, 14; Paddock, 8; scattering, 10. The third ballot stood : Thayer, 14; Dunphy, 15; Paddock, 9. The Legislature adjourned till noon to-morrow. Thayer's falling off creates a profound sensation. It is proable the Republicaus will now go into caucus, which they have bitherto refused to do, and bring out a new man. The excitement at Lincoln is intense. It is stated on good authority that Gen. Thayer has withdrawn from the Senatorial contest, and that Judge Dunphy will be elected United States Senator to-morrow. CHICAGO, Jan. 20.-Information has been received from Lincoln, Neb., that it is now believed that none of the Senatorial candidates now in the field will be successful. The opinion prevails that the present Governor of Nebraska (Mr. Garber), hitherto not in the field. | think a considerable sum might be collected here if will carry off the prize.

EX-GOV. RANDOLPH THE DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE

IN NEW-JERSEY. TRENTON, Jan. 20 .- In the Democratic caucus to-night ex-Gov. Theodore P. Randolph received the nomination for United States Senator, on the second ballot. The following is the vote: First ballot-Randolph, 24; Gilchrist, 14; Stockton, 8; Browning, 3. Sec. ond ballot-Randolph, 28; Gilchrist, 14; Stockton, 4; Browning, 3. William P. McMichael of Burlington received the nomination for State Treasurer; David Hennion of Mercer was nominated for Keeper of the State Prison, and Morris R. Hamilton of Essex for State Librarian. The caucus was in session about two hours

SENATOR CHANDLER'S PROSPECTS.

LANSINGBURG, Mich., Jan. 20 .- The result of the Democratic caucus list wight, and the subsequent conference with the anti-Chandler men, is kept entirely secret. It is thought that the Democrats, after uniting on some candidate of their own, if unable to elect, will unite with the anti-Chandler men on some such man as Judge Chrystiancy or Cooley. The anti-Chandler men stand firm. Mr. Chandler's friends say that they are confident of ultimate success.

On the first ballot to-day Senator Chandler received 64 votes, a gain of one. Mr. Lathrop received most of the remaining vote.

EX-FRESIDENT JOHNSON SLOWLY GAINING IN TENNESSEE. NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 23.-The Legislature

met in joint Convention at 12 o'clock to-day, and pro-ceeded to ballot for a United States Senator after comparing yesterday's vote. On the first ballot Johnson received 30 votes; Stephens, 16; Brown, 15; Bate, 13; Savage, 10; Ewing, 7; Quarles, 7, and Kennedy, 1. next five ballots were the same. On the seventh ballot Johnson received 31; Stephens, 17; Brows, 16; Bate, 15; Savage, 7; Ewing, 6; Quarles, 6, and Paine, 1. The Convention then aujourned until noon to-morrow.

SENATOR RAMSEY GAINS ONE VOTE IN MINNE-SOTA.

Sr. Paul, Jan. 20 .- The Legislature in joint convention to-day baileted for United States Senator with the following result: Ramsey, 61; Donnelly, 51; Davis, 24; scattering, 10. In this ballot Ramsey guined I, Donnelly lost 2 and Davis held his own. Mr. Merz, a Democratic representative from Stearns County. changed from Donnelly to Ramsey.

GENERAL POLITICAL NEWS.

THE NEW-JERSEY LEGISLATURE

JOINT COMMITTEES APPOINTED-SALARIES OF SEN-ATE OFFICERS REDUCED-THE CHARGES AGAINST THE CLERK OF THE ASSEMBLY TO BE INVESTI-GATED-THE SERGEANT-AT-ARMS OF THE SENATE ACCUSED OF JOBBERY.

[VEON THE REGULAR CORRESPONDENT OF THE TRIBUNE.] resolution introduced by Mr. Stone and amended by Mr. Hopper was passed instructing the Commissioners on islature by the 15th of February next. The Joint Coumittees were announced, the Chairmen being as follows: Treasurer's Accounts, Wood; State Prison, Thorn; Pub lie Buildings, Willets; Library, Learning; Sinking Fund, Schultze; Federal Relations, Stone; Commerce and Navigation, Potis; Passed Bills, Newkirk; Printing, Learning; Boldiers' Home, Wood; Soldiers' Children's Home, Hill; Centennial Celebration, Sewell; Reform School for Boys, Javrard; Reform School for Girls, Thorn; Lunatic Asylum, Hopkins. A resolution was adopted by both houses that no private bills be received after Feb. 15. The Senate reduced the salaries of its officers to the following amounts: Secretary, $2,000 Assistant Secretary, $1,460; Journal Clerk, $1,400; Ho grossing Clerk, $1,500; Sergeant-at-Arms, $1,800; Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms, $6.0; Calendar Clerk, $600; Clerk of Committee on Engrossed Bills, $600; President's page. $500; Senate pages, $200 each; Doorkeepers, $250 each.

The Senate adjourned to Manday ovening.

In the Assembly a resolution was adopted on the motion of Mr. Morrow (Rop., Essex) directing that the charges made against Mr. Carpenter, the Clerk of the House, be investigated by a committee of five members, which was constituted as follows by the Speaker Mesers. Merrow, McGill, Read, lehson, Wilson, and Moffett. Before the resolution was introduced, Carpenter endeavored to break its effect by asking for in mediate inquiry. He has also circulated a singular defense, in which he says that he was "pressed by strong delegations from different parts of the State" to appoint candidates whom they had selected; that he told them he would appoint whoever they would agree upon; and that, in order to promote harmony, he caused the succossful candidate to give a defeated aspirant a note for $500, which he indorsed. All this he did for the "benefit of the party." but finding that he was misunderstood, dividuals referred to. Hence all this trouble and his demand to have the charge investigated. On the motion of Mr. French, a committee was appointed to inquire if the Sergeant-at-Arms had received to each for appointing pages, but it was subsequently clasevered that the person charged is the Sergeant of the Secate, over whom the House has, of course, no

AID STILL URGENTLY NEEDED. THE FRIGHTFUL CONDITION OF THE SUFFERERS.

To the Editor of The Iribune. SIR: A friend of mine received a letter yesterday from a gentleman in Missouri who is well known to me, in which he says: "The sufferings of the Kansas people from the grasshoppers have been frightful. They are in an awful condition; no clothing, no provisions. It will really be a great charity to send them anything, no matter how old and poor it is. I know, being here and seeing men who come in on the railroad, that the stories are not exaggerated." I hasten to inclose berewith a small contribution ($25) for their relief. F. F. MARBURY. New-York, Jan. 19, 1875.

THE PEOPLE WILLING-THE LABORERS FEW. To the Editor of The Tribune. SIR: Inclosed please find $4 collected by myself for the sufferers in Kansas and Nebraska. I regret I have not time to make a general canvase, for I some one would call on the people generally. Yours respectfully, South Manchester, Conn., Jan. 15, 1875.

THE SEVERE WEATHER IN THE WEST.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sin: A friend in Minnesota writes to me, referring to the cold weather there: "I went out to the door and threw some water up in the air, and it came down jingling-was frozen into icicles." As I presume it is no warmer in Kansas and Nebraska, I inclose $5 for the locust sufferers in those States.

New York, Jan. 19, 1875. FASTING AND ALMSGIVING.
To the Editor of The Iribune.

Sin: Inclosed find $3 for the Kansas or Nebraska sufferers. I fasted on Thanksgiving Day, ate no turkey, pie, ca'te, or pudding, drank no liquor or used tobacco, attended no place of amusement or entertainment, and felt so much better for it that I did the same on Christmas and New-Year's. If every person in the land had done likewise in those days, saved the money these unnecessary things for our health or happiness cost them, and sent it to the poor and needy ones throughout the land, how much suffering we might relieve.

CHARLES E. COCK. Cornwall on the Hudson, 18th First month, 1875. A RESPONSE PROM THE TEACHERS.

The present condition of the sufferers in the destitute districts of Kansas is truly deplorable, and already the reports of much suffering and death from freezing during this severe cold weather are becoming numerous and alarming. Our Aid Society is greatly in need of money to purchase fuel for these people, who live in a treeless country and must have coal furnished, or they must perish in the cold. Their necessities are immediate and very great. Any contributions of money or clothing, boots, shoes, or ten for cursick will be most thankfully received and forwarded, if sent to my adsent in, and a weekly statement of receipts made in the daily press of the city.

MR. FORSTER'S RECEPTION IN AMERICA.

THE REPRESENTATIVE OF ENGLAND THAT WAS WELCOMED - FRIENDLY COMMENDS ON HIS SPEECH BEFORE THE UNION LEAGUE CLUB.

We do not know that Mr. Forster's cordial We do not know that Mr. Forster's cordial recention in the United States should be taken as a matter of course. It is quite true that when the cause of free coverament and of humanity was bound up with the triumph of the American Union over separatist attacks, and when, to all who had not a perfect faith in the inherent energy of great principles, the prospects of that cause were at their darkest, Mr. Forster was one of a small band of Parliamentary politicians who represented in public affairs the true instructs of the English people, and made the voice of English heard soundiness on the side of liberty and progress. Next to Mr. Colden and Mr. Bright, perhaps even more industriously and seducially than either of these great orators, Mr. Forster constituted himself the defender in the House of Commons of these political doctrines which the Government of President Lincola asserted against the Southern Scoosionisis. And his auvocacy was most valuable both to the American Government and to the Liberal parity in this comatry. To Mr. Forster and his new feilow-asborers if is mainly owing that Expland was not dragged by the late Experior of the French and by the incorant rechlesoness of her own rulers had a disagrous interference with the course of the civil war. We say this without forgetting that Mr. Forster's subsequent political career has done almost as much demand to the Liberal cause in another direction as his delense of the Federal Government did good service from isol to 1864. But of Mr. Forster's original Forster's subsequent political career has done almost as much damage to the Liberal cause in another direction as his delense of the Federal Government did good service from less to 1864. But of Mr. Forster's original merits, and of his later bankshiding, the immense and prity of Americana ard, we venture to say, altogether, and of his later bankshiding, the immense and prity of Americana ard, we venture to say, altogether, and it has been another to say, altogether, and the later would have been matter for surprise, and indeed the knowledge of the careers and reputations of English statesmen, even of Mr. Bright's rank, of walch Americans in general are possessed, is extreately preager. We do not mention this as in any way a reflection upon the intelligence of the American people, and we are quite sure it is matched by the ignorome of American points prevailing among Englishmen. But it is worth while to draw attention to the lat, lest the warnate of Mr. Forster's welcome should be held to have a really personal significance. Of course, when a late Calonet Minister of England paid a vise to America, it was natural for his nosts to inquire what was his "record," and having made the inquiry they would learn how troe a freend the United States had in the member for Bradford. But their gratified has probably no deeper root than the English statesman, that the United League Chib of New York delighted to honor three weeks ago. It was his representant to a England beat mind and warneest heart. Nowlork, N. I., Jan. 19, 1815.

THE BOSTON RAILROAD COMMITTEE AT POUGH

KEEPSIE. POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Jan. 20 .- The Boston Railroad Committee to-day visited the approaches and crossings of the proposed Poughkeepsie bridge, and, after making minute examinations, were escorted to places of public interest about the city, including Vassar College, where they were received by President Raymond and the faculty. They returned to the city at 6 o'clock p. m. Ponight they were tendered a banquet, at which representatives from New-York, New-Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Massachusetts, and Connecticut were present. All of the speeches were strongly in favor of the construction of the Poughkeepsie bridge—so as to insure a direct line from the East to the coal fields and the West. Among the speakers were Mayor Carpenter of Poughkeepsie, ex-Mator Eastman, Mr. Clark, Chairman of the Beston Committee, John P. Winstow, representing the iron interests, Mr. Johnson, a leading Boston merchant, and others. Letters from prominent tailroad men were read, fully indorsing the Poughkeepsie bridge project. To morrow the Boston Committee will leave here in sleeding for Pine Bush, Ulster County, where a special train will meet them and convey them flow the Midland Road to Deckertown, and in the evening they will return to Newburgh, where another banquet awaits hem. A number of Poughkeepsieans will accompany the excursionisis. The Committee will leave for home on Friday. College, where they were received by Prest for home on Friday.

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CENTENNIAL COM-

Philadelphia, Jan. 20. - Director-General A. T. Goshorn, will the with the Secretary of the Interior to morrow the annual report of the Centennial Commission, as required by act of Congress. The report states that the enterprise is moving forward with encouraging rapidity. The buildings are all under contract, and will be entirely completed by the 1st of February, 1816, and the failure which marked the opening day at the Vienna Exposition by reason of the incom-plete state of the buildings, will not occur at the Centennial Celebration. It is further stated that the Commission will not apply to Congress for an appropriation to aid in the erection of the buildings, or other work, as this has been amply provided for, and while an appropriation would give additional success to the enterprise, the Commission feel that the success of the Exhibition is guaranteed, without recard to aid from Congress. The Commission, however, will ask Congress to make an appropriation to provide for premiums to be offered contributors. The amount of the appropriation to be asked for will not exceed $400,000. The Commission will ask Congress to authorize the President to detail at least one regiment of United States troops for guard duty during the continuance of the Exhibition. It is expected without doubt that everything will be in readiness to formally open the Exhibition on the 1st of May, 1876. The report will be accompanied by tables and diawings, showing the exicul of the buildings, their cost, and the purposes to which each will be devoted. Commission will not apply to Congress for an

PETITION OF THE SAILORS' ASSOCIATION FOR AMEND

MENTS TO THE SHIPPING ACT. An enthusiastic and largely-attended meeting of the Sallors' Association was held last evening at Botanic Hall, No. 68 East Broadway, for the purpose o receiving the report of the delegation lately returned from Washington, which presented to the President a petition for the repeal or amendment of the law known as the Shipping Commission not of 1872. There were nearly 500 sailors present. The report of the committee, stating that they were promised the cooperation of the President, the Secretary of the Navy, and the Secretary of the Treasury, and of the Congressional Committee of Congress, was read and accepted. The petition presented at Washington offers briefly the following object

First: That sailors are deprived of the protection of admiralty eria. Second: That they are absolutely at the morey of the Shipping Com-Sciences for employment.

Third: That there is no redress or appeal from any decision of the thipping Commissioners.

Fifth: That the act imposes a direct or capitation is a not in proportion to the commission of t tion to the last census.

Night: That it imposes such the upon the labor of the sailor, while the laborer arous abore, who is better paid, is not so taxed.

Seven'A: That it imposes a lar upon the suppreper of a sailor for emploring them.

Eighth: That the law, as it formerly existed, was an ample protection, as far as law can protect.

The association wish it to be understood that, believing the law was passed in good faith for the elevation of the satior and for his protection, it is against the abuses arising therefrom that they petition, and would abuses arising therefrom that they potation, and would be satisfied if it could be amended as follows:

The power of appointing the Commissioner to be removed from the Circuit Judges, and placed in the hands of the Secretary of the Treasure; the shipping fee to be reduced to 50 cents a man; the fee attached to the shipping or discourring of salors to be abolished; the Commissioner to be made a salaried officer; all fees to go direct to the United States Government; all atcauships, whether constwise or foreign, to be exempted from complying with the provisions of the Shipping act; the unclaimed wages of all deceased seamen to constitute a fund for the relief of sick and indigent seamen, under the superintendence of the United States seamen, under the superintendence of the United States Merchant Marine Hospital Bureau.

On the 5th of September last Messrs. Warren Ward & Co.'s forming tactory, in West Twelfthest., was partially consumed by fire, lighted by an incendiary who was subsequently arrested in the fourth attempt to burn the building, and is now serving out a 10 years' term at Sing Sing for his crime. On the 27th of December, when the manufactory had been rebuilt and got nicely to running, their extensive warerooms, corner of Crosby and Spring sts., were burned, causing a very heavy though not a total base-making the fifth time within as many months this firm had been threatened with destruction by fire—two of which had proved serious. On the next day after the burning of their waterooms, with a large portion of their valuable contents. Messrs. Ward & Co. had secured a new store for temporary use, and sent an advertisement to The Trinush announcing their business going on as usual, and so energetically have they pushed on the work of reomiding that they now announce their intention to reoccupy their old stand with a finer stock than ever about the 1st of March uext. Such enterprise insures success, and it is not unlikely such as a trained by 35. On the 5th of September last Messrs. Warwith a finer stock than ever about the 1st of March uext. Such enterprise insures success, and it is not unlikely that the high reputation to a house has attained by 2s years of successful toil will be hightened rather than diminished by their heavy loses. Much credit is due the underwriters for their prompt settlement with this plucky firm, enabling them to turn their damaged stock to advantage, to rebuild during the dull Winter months while labor is cheap, and thus be ready for the opening of Spring business while tempting display of new goods, and an opportunity to retrieve their misfortunes.
